

Dressed to thrill

ARE YOU IRELAND'S NEXT TOP MODEL?

BY MAEVE QUIGLEY
m.quigley@irishmirror.ie

HAVE you got what it takes to be a top model?

Today the Irish Daily Mirror is launching the search for Miss Dresses.ie 2010.

The title's been held by many big-name models such as Louise Kavanagh, Karen Sutton and Daniella Moyles. Top internet design house dresses.ie has worked with many famous faces and now features up-and-coming model Carla Jackson, seen here in their latest collection.

Lisa Foley of www.dresses.ie said: "Our ideal candidate would be 5ft 7ins or taller, a size six, eight or 10 and aged between 18 and 25.

"They would have to have a keen interest in fashion and be interested in modelling. You need to tell us the reasons why you would like to be Miss Dresses.ie 2010.

"Candidates should also choose their favourite dress on www.dresses.ie and tell us the reasons why they liked it the most."

The prize includes entry into Miss Universe Ireland, photoshoots with the website and a wardrobe worth €500.

If you think you have what it takes to be the new face of Dresses.ie, attach your photos to a letter including your name, address, telephone number, height, size, age, interests and educational background.

Email entries to lisa@heartandsoul.ie or write to Eimear Burton, Manager, Dresses.ie, Arena House, Sandyford, Co Dublin.

Submissions should be in by February 17, at which time three girls will be chosen for a fashion shoot in the Irish Daily Mirror.

White and blue floral pencil dress - €49

Strapless blue satin rhinestone dress - €39

Black, white and grey strapless dress - €43

You need to tell us
the reasons why you would like to be Miss Dresses.ie for 2010.
Candidates should be interested in fashion
LISA FOLEY

